

LEE ZELDIN'S LIST OF 10—GRIEVANCES VS. KATHY HOCHUL

1—Bail. Refusing to repeal cashless bail: Judges should have discretion to weigh dangerousness and other factors in far more cases and there should also be more minimum standards set where pre-trial confinement is mandatory. Hochul refuses to even listen to members of her own party like New York City Mayor Eric Adams who have asked her to call a special session to address this issue.

2—Less is More. Signing the Less is More Act, which released thousands of inmates from prison earlier.

3—(Alleged) Pay-to-Play. Engaging in massive pay to play corruption, awarding no bid contracts to her top campaign donors, getting liquor licenses for her campaign donors and continuing to sell access to state government.

4—Bragg. Covering for Alvin Bragg and refusing to fire him despite Bragg refusing to enforce the law. New York doesn't have recall elections. Firing DAs like Bragg isn't just her Constitutional authority. It's the Governor's Constitutional responsibility.

5—HALT. Silence on the HALT Act and refusing to repeal it, despite data from the New York State Department of Corrections and Community Supervision that shows attacks on corrections officers and other prison staff have increased over 35% since the implementation of the HALT Act.

6—Raise the Age. Refusing to amend Raise the Age, which would provide judges with more tools when considering cases.

7—Qualified Immunity. Refusing to protect qualified immunity for law enforcement and failing to give them the support they need to safely do their jobs to protect New Yorkers.

8—Discovery. Ignoring failures of discovery law changes and refusing to roll them back to fix the law.

9—Parole Board. Silence on the parole board releasing so many cop killers, murderers and rapists, and refusing to call for overhaul.

10—“Victim’s Rights”. Refusing to stick up for victims’ rights and give victims and their families more of a voice with parole board decisions.
